

CompuTech for Humanity

Our profound Appreciation and gratitude to our 2009 dedicated volunteers and generous supporters who helped in a variety of ways to making sure all seven computer giveaway events held this year successful. We couldn't have done it without you.

Wendy Ghrist, a paraplegic receives a laptop from CFH.

In October 2009, at the Northridge Hospital, Spinal cord support group meeting iBook (apple laptops) were distributed to nine qualified Spinal injury victims.

Volunteers who made it happen.

Richard Rehhaut receives a laptop from CFH.

A volunteer from Accessible Planet picks up computers that will be used by the LA Radio Reading Service for the blind.

Freda Russell a senior receives her very first computer and she is planning to come out of retirement going back to work.

Sandra Pacheco, a single mother of four receives the family's very first computer.

Joseph Ogbomon, CEO welcomes computer recipients to one of seven CHF Free Computer Giveaway Events in 2009.

Arturo Hernandez a father of four; one suffers with Autism and one with Dawn Syndrome.

Mobility impaired client poses with Joseph right after she receives a free computer from CompuTech for humanity.